

HAVEN CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

OUR FAMILY COVENANT

Our Vision:

Imagine a school where...

- The parents and the school staff understand themselves to be part of a team with common goals.
- The parents and the school staff strive for excellence in being great team members and partners.
- The school staff and the parents are united on the following:
  1. United by the love they have for each student.
  2. United by their desire for students to be given the most excellent education possible.
  3. United by their desire for students to be equipped to live lives of excellence.
  4. United by their love for Christ.
  5. United by their love for each other.

Our Family Commitment:

- As HCA's Parent-Partners, we understand that HCA is a Not-for-Profit, private Christian academy that primarily operates through our regular tuition payments. As HCA Parent-Partners, we also understand that we have a financial obligation to pay for one-full-year of tuition regardless of the changes or challenges in our financial position or for any other reason. We understand that the school reserves the right to assist us as it is able and on a case by case basis. However, by signing below, our family agrees (before God) to this legal and binding financial covenant and agreement.

HAVEN CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

OUR FAMILY COVENANT

- As HCA Parent-Partners, we also understand that any additional financial needs of the academy will be met through gifts and other fundraising activities. We agree to financially support the academy's fundraising efforts as our family is able. In other words, we understand that our regular and faithful tuition payments may not meet the operational expenses of the academy. We also recognize that giving to the school may also be done through volunteerism, and we agree to make every effort to assist the academy through volunteering our time and talents (as we are able).
- Before God, our family pledges our commitment to be excellent Parent-Partners and to support the academy consistent with the academy's commitment to us to partner together in an excellent manner, a manner consistent with God's word and with His perfect character. As conflict inevitably arises, we commit to dealing with the conflict consistent with Biblical principles (Matthew 18). Our common goals shall always be with the hope of full restoration consistent with our common desire to have a unified team (parents, academy, and church) working faithfully together for the blessing and development of our (God's) children. In areas of academy policies and procedures, we agree to support or

